

THE WEATHER.
Fair tonight with increasing cloudiness Saturday. Rising temperature.

The Paducah Sun.

VOL. XVIII. NO. 116.

PADUCAH, KY., FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 11, 1906.

10 CENTS PER WEEK.

QUAKE SHOCKS IN INDIANA

Petersburg Aroused by Two Waves This Morning.

Fatal Trolley Car Accident At Chattanooga and Serious Train Wreck Near Lynchburg.

INTERESTING FOREIGN NEWS

Petersburg, Ind., May 11.—Two distinct earthquake shocks were felt here at 1 o'clock this morning. Many buildings shook so violently the people jumped from their beds. A vivid flash, resembling lightning and a low rumbling noise, preceded the first shock. There was an interval of 40 seconds between the vibrations.

Two Men Killed and Several Hurt. Chattanooga, Tenn., May 11.—A Southern passenger train ran into a Lookout Mountain trolley car this morning. Contractor Rankin and Foreman Derrige, of the Central Manufacturing company, were instantly killed. Fred Fry, a laborer, was fatally injured, and five passengers more or less seriously.

An Ugly Train Wreck. Lynchburg, Va., May 11.—In a wreck on the Norfolk and Western railroad, just below this city, this morning, three trainmen were killed and a number of other persons hurt. A broken rail caused the accident.

The Zuluand Insurrection Grows. Durban, Natal, May 11.—Most serious news from the Zuluand insurrection was received this morning. The advices state that several thousand natives are joining the rebels under the leadership of Chief Rambata. Colonial troops are being hurried forward to intercept and prevent a junction of the two forces.

Peaceful Settlement Possible. London, May 11.—The Times prints a dispatch from Cairo which states that hopes are entertained that a peaceful settlement will be reached in the dispute between Great Britain and Turkey over evacuation of Tabah by the Turkish troops.

Strike Leaders Assassinated. Rome, Italy, May 11.—Two of the principal leaders in the labor strike movement in Milan were murdered last night. The murderers escaped. There is great excitement over the assassinations.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis III. New York, May 11.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis passed a good night and is reported somewhat improved today. She is suffering from a gripe and yesterday was thought to be very ill.

BRYAN WON'T RUN AGAIN, UNLESS

"Circumstances" Might Make Him Candidate, He Writes from Cairo, Egypt.

St. Louis, May 11.—That William Jennings Bryan never gets so far from home that the buzz of the presidential bee fails to reach his ears, is indicated by a letter from Mr. Bryan, mailed at Cairo, Egypt, received by Moses Wetmore, of St. Louis. Mr. Bryan writes that he does not want another nomination, "unless circumstances seem to demand it."

In his letter which, after the fashion of Eastern potentates, is signed with a single name, Mr. Bryan says: "Cairo, Egypt, April 16, 1906.—My Dear Col. Wetmore: My brother has forwarded me your letter. I am always glad to hear from you even if your flattering reports do make me blush."

"I am satisfied that the things I have been fighting for are growing, but who will be the most available in 1908 is a question that cannot be answered now."

"I shall not do anything to secure another nomination, and do not want it unless circumstances seem to demand it—time alone can determine that."

"I appreciate your deep interest in the matter, and shall want to see you as soon as I get home. "BRYAN."

COURTED HER BY MAIL.

Did Not Know His Bride When He Came to Wed Her.

Lafayette, Ind., May 11.—Although they had never met before, Mrs. Martha A. Leavitt, a widow, at the State Soldiers' Home, and Henry B. King, of Pittsburgh, were married here today. The wedding was the culmination of a courtship conducted by mail. When he arrived last night at the home he did not even know Mrs. Leavitt by sight. As he is not a veteran, it will be necessary for Mrs. King to leave the home. They will probably live in Pennsylvania.

The circulation of The Sun for the month of April was 4,018, a day average. Business instinct tells you that it is the paper that tells its circulation daily that merits your confidence.

OPENING OF RUSSIA'S DOUMA

Effected Without a Hitch But With Some Significance.

Emperor Nicholas Appointed Surrounded by All Pomp and the Panoply of Power.

CHEERED ONLY BY SUPPORTERS

St. Petersburg, May 11.—Without a single hitch and with only a minor incident to make a memorable day the Russian parliament was inaugurated. The stage management of the impressive ceremony at the Winter Palace where Emperor Nicholas, surrounded by courtiers and all the pomp and panoply of power, delivered his speech from the throne to the members of the two houses was perfect. Such a spectacle, perhaps, never before had been witnessed on the earth's stage.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

ONLY SUPPORTERS CHEERED.

Courtiers and spectators, other than members of the national parliament, led the cheering, but the members were ominously silent, expressing neither approval nor disapproval. What rankled most was the failure of the emperor to mention amnesty and later when the members assembled in the Tauride Palace away from the spell of the throne room, many of them were with difficulty restrained from participating in the matter by offering resolutions on the subject.

The constitutional democratic leaders, however, who dominated everything, were anxious not to weaken the reply which the lower house will prepare to the speech from the throne. In which the issues with the crown will be joined, and succeeded in staving off premature action.

CONTRASTING SCENES.

The board will have little to do, the principle business being routine. The matter of beautifying the hospital yard will come up. It has been suggested that the association remove the fence, now that the cow ordnance is being enforced, and it is said this will be favorably considered. It will beautify the yard a great deal and have an effect of setting off the hospital building to a better advantage.

The board will also take up the matter of repairing the interior of the building and order other such improvements as necessary.

Mr. Egan is in attendance although he is hardly able to be out. His physicians advise him to keep close for several days in order to permanently recover. His illness is not serious and the many friends of the popular superintendent will regret to learn of his illness.

WANT IT ADJUSTED.

BITUMINOUS OPERATORS TO ASK PRESIDENT TO SETTLE DIFFERENCES.

Chicago, May 11.—Illinois, Indiana and Ohio coal operators in joint session yesterday afternoon passed resolutions authorizing the appointment of a committee to lay before President Roosevelt the differences between the bituminous operators and miners. No action will be taken by this committee, however, unless the conference between the operators and miners to be held next week fails. Then the operators will appoint the committee and the president will be asked to intercede and endeavor to bring about an adjustment of the difficulty.

BARN FIRE AT SEDALIA.

Mayfield, Ky., May 11.—Fire Wednesday night destroyed the barn at the home of Ed Ford at Sedalia. The barn was bran new and contained about 9,000 pounds of hay, 30 barrels of corn, a buggy, wagon gear harness, etc., which was a total loss. Nothing was saved. The barn belonged to Usher & Kirksey, of Sedalia. The entire loss was about $7000 the most severe loss being to Mr. Ford. There was no insurance and the origin of the fire is unknown.

OLD RESIDENT OF GRAVES DIES.

Mayfield, Ky., May 11.—John Boyle, 84 years old, died at his home at Kansas, this county, Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Boyle is survived by five children. Mrs. Robert McReynold, Mrs. W. H. McReynolds, Mrs. B. A. Pickens, Mrs. I. Rouse and James Boyle.

Mrs. J. M. Armstead, 70 years old, died at her home at Lowes Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

apart until the imperial pageant approached.

After the adjournment of parliament there was a great celebration in front of the rooms of the Constitutional club, to which the leaders had retired for consultation. Thousands of people paced the adjoining streets and shouted and cheered until the leaders appeared on the balcony and spoke. Their words were received with frantic applause. In the crowd, stump speakers, including socialist deputies, from barrels and cart tails delivered tirades. Though open air gatherings are illegal the police did not interfere.

WILL ASK FOR AMNESTY.

At conference of the constitutional democratic leaders it was decided in Prof. Mouroumstoff, when he is received in audience by Emperor Nicholas to receive the imperial confirmation of his election to the presidency of lower house, should broach the subject of immediate amnesty to political offenders.

A celebration in honor of the opening of parliament was held today in every city of the empire. The only disturbances were at Simbirsk and several cities of Poland where there were collisions between the police and boycotting factions and revolutionary students.

CORONER'S VERDICT.

IN THE CASE OF JEMIMA MCCHESNEY EXONERATES WALLACE & IVERSON.

Result of Analysis of the Woman's Stomach by Expert Heard Before Jury.

The jury in the case of Jemima McChesney, the colored woman who died very suddenly about two months ago from a supposed dose of morphine, claimed to have been sold her for quinine by Iverson & Wallace, met last night at the office of Justice Charles Emery to receive the result of the analysis of the stomach by an expert of Louisville. His report showed no morphine in the stomach completely vindicating the drugists, and the jury brought in a verdict that death was caused by unknown causes.

The verdict is gratifying to the Messrs. Iverson & Wallace and their friends.

The jury was as follows: H. D. Phillips, C. J. Holcomb, J. B. Flach, J. P. Mullin, J. B. Gilbert and J. T. Whitus.

NOTED COLORED TURFMAN MAKES HIS LAST RUN.

Crossed Under the "String" of Death in Louisville This Morning.

Louisville, May 11.—Edward Dudley Brown, known in the turf world as "Brown Dick," is dead. Tuberculosis was the cause. The end came at 8:20 West Walnut street early this morning. His age was fifty-six years. "Brown Dick" was one of the best known colored trainers in America. He was the last of the antebellum negro turfmen. Born in the heart of the bluegrass, with the thoroughbreds his closest acquaintance since childhood, he passed away talking of the many noted horses he had either owned or trained in the long ago.

The only genuine flashes of fire which showed the real temper of the members of the house were when Prof. Mouroumstoff, who had been elected president of the house, invited the government officials and clerks to leave the hall and when Ivan Petrunkevitch, in a few eloquent words from the rostrum, told his auditors that the first thought of the parliament should be for those who had suffered in the cause of liberty, and now filled prisons and whose arms were stretched out in the hope and confidence to the people's representatives. More enthusiastic cheering than that which greeted this appeal never was heard in a political convention anywhere.

"Constitution and amnesty" were the keynotes of Mouroumstoff's speech.

A "FOOLISH DREAMER'S" DREAM.

By the irony of fate, Ivan Petrunkevitch, whose first mention of the word constitution 12 years ago was dismissed by Emperor Nicholas II. as a "foolish dreamer," stood in the front rank of the members of the representative chambers while Emperor Nicholas put his final seal upon the Russian parliament and begged the representatives of the people to co-operate with him in working for the welfare of the country.

The lower house of parliament adjourned over a day, in order not to interfere with the opening exercises of the council of the empire and also to permit the committee of constitutional democrats to consider the reply to the speech from the throne.

WHITE, THE EX-PREMIER.

A pathetic figure in the scene at the palace was that of Count Witte, of whom the correspondent of the Associated Press caught a glimpse before the ceremony, pacing the corridor, entirely alone. Later he entered the throne hall clad in the gold and black uniform of a secretary of state, one of the highest dignitaries of the court, which still remains to him, and with the ribbon of the Alexander Nevsky order on his breast. He took his place in the ranks of the bureaucracy. Former Interior Minister Minister Dunyov was there too, chattering animatedly and earnestly with his companions, but Witte seemed to find a cold welcome from everyone. Finally he wandered away and stood

LOCAL MARKETS.

Dressed Chickens—35c to 60c. Eggs—15c a dozen. Butter—20c lb. Irish Potatoes—Per bu. 60c. Country Hams—13 1-2c lb. Green Sausage—12 1/2c lb. Sausage—10c lb. Country Lard—10c lb. Radishes—2 bunches 65c. Lettuce—3 heads for 5c. Rhubarb—5c per bunch. Strawberries—25c quart.

JUDICIAL REVIEW NEAR A VOTE

Thought Senate Will Reach This Point This Evening.

Violent Storm in Germany Causes Loss of Life and Does Much Damage

'FRISCO BANKS ARE ALL RIGHT.'

Washington, May 11.—The senate met an hour earlier than usual today with the view of reaching a final vote on the judicial review feature of the railroad rate bill before adjournment this afternoon.

The senate yesterday completed the consideration of the second section of the railroad rate bill and just before adjournment listened to the reading of sections three and four without considering any amendments offered to them. The purpose of this reading was to bring the consideration of the bill up to the point of taking up the Allison compromise amendments, which will be done this afternoon.

Violent Storms in Germany.

Berlin, May 11.—The violent storms which have prevailed throughout Germany recently are causing great damage and some loss of life. At Cologne a house was unroofed and several buildings collapsed. A wind storm raised a column of water thirty feet high in the Rhine. In Gundershausen a church was struck by lightning while services were in progress. Two persons were killed and ten injured.

'FRISCO BANKS SOON TO OPEN.'

San Francisco, May 11.—On the 21st inst. the commercial banks of the city will open their doors for regular business, and the savings banks will likely resume the same date. Examination of the bank vaults is being made, and so far all have been found in good condition. The banks could reopen at once if they had suitable places in which to do business.

The first building permit for permanent construction has been issued. It is for a ten-story building on Market street.

MUST PAY THE PENALTY.

Dayton, O., May 11.—Judge Brown today overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of Dr. Oliver C. Haugh, who was convicted of the murder of his parents and a brother, and sentenced the prisoner to be electrocuted August 29. Haugh received the sentence with characteristic indifference.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN SUTREVILLE, PA.

Sutreville, Pa., May 11.—A fire which started this morning in a frame house destroyed the greater part of the business section of the town. Assistance was summoned from Pittsburg and other places.

The fire practically burned out before help arrived. The loss is not estimated.

AN OLD STORY FROM RUSSIA.

Simbirsk, Russia, May 11.—A clash between the police and a crowd celebrating the meeting of the Douma occurred here. Afterward a gang of roughs attacked the demonstrators and in the clash many were injured. Some seriously.

DIED WITHOUT MEDICAL ATTENTION.

Zion City, May 11.—A coroner's inquest will probably be held today over the remains of Mrs. Cantell, wife of Overseer Cantell who died early this morning from childbirth. She did not receive medical attention during her illness. Cantell recently returned from London where he had charge of Dowie's work in England. He now sides with Voliva.

CARL SCHURZ'S CONDITION.

New York, May 11.—The condition of Hon. Carl Schurz is reported somewhat improved today by his physicians. He is said to be in no immediate danger. The report had gone out that he was in a dying condition.

NEW BIRTH FOR J. F. WALLACE.

Chicago, May 11.—John F. Wallace, former chief engineer of the Panama canal, announces that he has accepted the presidency of the Electric Properties company. The organization, recently incorporated in New York, is, according to Mr. Wallace, to acquire, finance and develop properties in which electricity plays the principal part.

BREAK FOR LIBERTY.

Wabash, Ind., May 11.—Frah Gillen, a prisoner who was being returned from Elkhorn county to the Jeffersonville reformatory, jumped from a southbound Big Four train near Warsaw while the train was running 40 miles an hour. He was recaptured with a broken ankle and is in the hospital here.

EARTHQUAKE IN NEBRASKA.

Towns for Sixty Miles Around Cody Report Shock.

Cody, Neb., May 11.—At 6:25 o'clock Wednesday night an earthquake shock, lasting nearly one minute, passed through the Elkhorn valley, the earth seeming to move north and south. No damage is reported from the various towns which have telephoned in the news. Towns in all directions for a radius of sixty miles have reported feeling the shock.

CAPTURED SPANISH FISHERMEN.

Madrid, May 11.—A dispatch from Ceuta, a Spanish settlement in the northern part of Morocco, says several Spanish fishing boats have been captured off Rif coast by Moors, who treated the crews cruelly. Repressive measures will be taken by Spain

THE CLASS DAY PROGRAM ARRANGED

Seniors Have Arranged Exercises for Event.

Miss Morgan Requested to Take Place On State Teachers' Association Program.

SCHOOL NOTES OF INTEREST

The committee of seniors to which the matter of arranging a program for the Class Day exercises was referred have arranged the program and presented it to the faculty for ratification. The faculty reserves the right to make any changes deemed necessary, and while the program will stand principally as arranged by the committee, it is possible that some little rearranging will be done.

THE PROGRAM.

The following are the numbers selected by the committee and the seniors elected to the honors:

Class Historian—Marie Wilcox. Class Prophet—Louise Janes. Class Will—Cora Richardson. Class Poet—Cassandra Ware. Class Auctioneer—Mary Bondur

THE WEATHER.
Fair tonight with increasing cloudiness Saturday. Rising temperature.

The Paducah Sun.

VOL. XVIII. NO. 116.

PADUCAH, KY., FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 11, 1906.

10 CENTS PER WEEK.

QUAKE SHOCKS IN INDIANA

Petersburg Aroused by Two Waves This Morning.

Fatal Trolley Car Accident At Chattanooga and Serious Train Wreck Near Lynchburg.

INTERESTING FOREIGN NEWS

Petersburg, Ind., May 11.—Two distinct earthquake shocks were felt here at 1 o'clock this morning. Many buildings shook so violently the people jumped from their beds. A vivid flash, resembling lightning and a low rumbling noise, preceded the first shock. There was an interval of 40 seconds between the vibrations.

Two Men Killed and Several Hurt.
Chattanooga, Tenn., May 11.—A Southern passenger train ran into a Lookout Mountain trolley car this morning. Contractor Rankin and Foreman Derrige, of the Central Manufacturing company, were instantly killed. Fred Fry, a laborer, was fatally injured, and five passengers more or less seriously.

An Ugly Train Wreck.
Lynchburg, Va., May 11.—In a wreck on the Norfolk and Western railroad, just below this city, this morning, three trainmen were killed and a number of other persons hurt. A broken rail caused the accident.

The Zuluand Insurrection Grows.
Durban, Natal, May 11.—Most serious news from the Zuluand insurrection was received this morning. The advices state that several thousand natives are joining the rebels under the leadership of Chief Rambata. Colonial troops are being hurried forward to intercept and prevent a junction of the two forces.

Peaceful Settlement Possible.
London, May 11.—The Times prints a dispatch from Cairo which states that hopes are entertained that a peaceful settlement will be reached in the dispute between Great Britain and Turkey over evacuation of Tabah by the Turkish troops.

Strike Leaders Assassinated.
Rome, Italy, May 11.—Two of the principal leaders in the labor strike movement in Milan were murdered last night. The murderers escaped. There is great excitement over the assassinations.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis III.
New York, May 11.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis passed a good night and is reported somewhat improved today. She is suffering from la grippe and yesterday was thought to be very ill.

BRYAN WON'T RUN AGAIN, UNLESS—

"Circumstances" Might Make Him Candidate, He Writes from Cairo, Egypt.

St. Louis, May 11.—That William Jennings Bryan never gets so far from home that the buzz of the presidential bee fails to reach his ears, is indicated by a letter from Mr. Bryan, mailed at Cairo, Egypt, received by Moses Wetmore, of St. Louis. Mr. Bryan writes that he does not want another nomination, "unless circumstances seem to demand it."

In his letter which, after the fashion of Eastern potentates, is signed with a single name, Mr. Bryan says:

"Cairo, Egypt, April 16, 1906.—My Dear Col. Wetmore: My brother has forwarded me your letter. I am always glad to hear from you even if your flattering reports do make me blushing."

"I am satisfied that the things I have been fighting for are growing, but who will be the most available in 1908 is a question that cannot be answered now."

"I shall not do anything to secure another nomination, and do not want it unless circumstances seem to demand it—time alone can determine that."

"I appreciate your deep interest in the matter, and shall want to see you as soon as I get home." "BRYAN."

COURTED HER BY MAIL.

Did Not Know His Bride When He Came to Wed Her.

Lafayette, Ind., May 11.—Although they had never met before, Mrs. Martha A. Leavitt, a widow, at the State Soldiers' Home, and Henry B. King, of Pittsburgh, were married here today. The wedding was the culmination of a courtship conducted by mail. When he arrived last night at the home he did not even know Mrs. Leavitt by sight. As he is not a veteran, it will be necessary for Mrs. King to leave the home. They will probably live in Pennsylvania.

OPENING OF RUSSIA'S DOUMA

Effected Without a Hitch But With Some Significance.

Emperor Nicholas Appeared Surrounded By All Pomp and the Panoply of Power.

CHEERED ONLY BY SUPPORTERS

St. Petersburg, May 11.—Without a single hitch and with only a minor incident to make a memorable day the Russian parliament was inaugurated. The stage management of the impressive ceremony at the Winter Palace where Emperor Nicholas, surrounded by courtiers and all the pomp and panoply of power, delivered his speech from the throne to the members of the two houses was perfect. Such a spectacle, perhaps, never before had been witnessed on the earth's stage.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

Only Supporters Cheered.
Courtiers and spectators, other than members of the national parliament, led the cheering, but the members were ominously silent, expressing neither approval nor disapproval.

What ranked most was the failure of the emperor to mention amnesty and later when the members assembled in the Tauride Palace away from the spell of the throne room, many of them were with difficulty restrained from participating in the matter by offering resolutions on the subject.

The constitutional democratic leaders, however, who dominate everything, were anxious not to weaken the reply which the lower house will prepare to the speech from the throne, in which the issues with the crown will be joined, and succeeded in staving off premature action.

Contrasting Scenes.
The scene around Tauride Palace was in striking contrast with that at the Winter Palace. Each, indeed, was typical and told an eloquent story.

At Tauride Palace tens of thousands of people were acclaiming their representatives; at the Winter Palace legions of military and courtiers by the hundreds cheered for the emperor.

Nevertheless the proceedings of the lower house were not spectacular; in fact they were almost tame in comparison with those at the Winter Palace.

The only genuine flashes of fire which showed the real temper of the members of the house were when Prof. Mouromstof, who had been elected president of the house, invited the government officials and clerks to leave the hall and when Ivan Petrunkevitch, in a few eloquent words from the rostrum, told his auditors that the first thought of the parliament should be for those who had suffered in the cause of liberty, and now filled prisons and whose arms were stretched out in the hope and confidence to the people's representatives. More enthusiastic cheering than that which greeted this appeal never was heard in a political convention anywhere.

"Constitution and amnesty" were the keynote of Mouromstof's speech. A "Foolish Dreamer's" Dream.
By the irony of fate, Ivan Petrunkevitch, whose first mention of the word "constitution" 12 years ago was dismissed by Emperor Nicholas II, as "a foolish dreamer," stood in the front rank of the members of the representative chambers while Emperor Nicholas put his final seal upon the Russian parliament and begged the representatives of the people to co-operate with him in working for the welfare of the country.

The lower house of parliament adjourned over a day, in order not to interfere with the opening exercises of the council of the empire and also to permit the committee of constitutional democrats to consider the reply to the speech from the throne.

Witte, the Ex-Premier.
A pathetic figure in the scene at the palace was that of Count Witte, of whom the correspondent of the Associated Press caught a glimpse before the ceremony, pacing the corridor, entirely, alone. Later he entered the throne hall clad in the gold and black uniform of a secretary of state, one of the highest dignitaries of the court, which still remains to him, and with the ribbon of the Alexander Nevsky order on his breast. He took his place in the ranks of the bureaucracy. Former Interior Minister Durnovo was there too, chatting animatedly and earnestly with his companions, but Witte seemed to find a cold welcome from everyone. Finally he wandered away and stood apart until the imperial pageant approached.

After the adjournment of parliament there was a great celebration in front of the rooms of the Constitutional club, to which the leaders had retired for consultation. Thousands of people paced the adjoining streets and shouted and cheered until the leaders appeared on the balcony and spoke. Their words were received with frantic applause. In the crowd, stump speakers, including socialist deputies, from barrels and cart tails delivered tirades. Though open air gatherings are illegal the police did not interfere.

Will Ask for Amnesty.

At conference of the constitutional democratic leaders it was decided in Prof. Mouromstof, when he is received in audience by Emperor Nicholas to receive the imperial confirmation of his election to the presidency of the lower house, should broach the subject of immediate amnesty to political offenders.

A celebration in honor of the opening of parliament was held today in every city of the empire. The only disturbances were at Simbirsk and several cities of Poland where there were collisions between the police and boycotting factions and revolutionary students.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co-operation of the parliament for the regeneration of the country was only negatively satisfactory.

The message in reality was less a throne speech than a greeting and required only three minutes for delivery. Emperor Nicholas read slowly and admirably. Even the cordial tone of the sovereign in renewing his pledges and asking the co

LEAGUE PARK

PADUCAH VS. VINCENNES

MAY 12, 13, 14

General Admission 25 Cents

Game called at 3:30 p.m. sharp.

Grand Stand 35c, Box Seat 60c

Tickets on sale at Smith & Nagel's, Fourth and 8th Street

WHAT IS SHOE SUCCESS

It isn't all in the price, nor the wear, nor the stylefulness, nor the variety of designs offered. But when the splendid combination and assemblage of all these desirable and necessary elements is attained the wear-ideal shoe proposition is found. It means business for us to have a discriminating and intelligent public to make a careful inspection of our shoes and oxfords. We intend dealing honestly with our patrons, giving them the benefit of our close and careful buying from the best shoe manufacturers in the world. Call around and let us fit your foot carefully, comfortably and stylishly.

"Tis not in mortals to command success,
But we'll do more, Good Public, we'll deserve it."

Geo Rock Shoe Co.
SELLERS OF SHOES AND SATISFACTION
324 BROADWAY. PADUCAH, KY.

Old Phone 1486-a. New Phone 586.

FLOUR
Cream quality, fancy Minnesota patent, milled in Minneapolis expressly for us from choicest wheat, sack—
70c

Lane's
Specials
55c

SUGAR
Finest granulated, 10 lbs.
55c

Bargains in Paducah's Greatest Grocery

THE
Great Southern Tea & Coffee Co.
113 SOUTH SECOND STREET

Armour's Sugar Cured Bacon, per lb.....	25c
Cracked Rice, 3 lbs.....	24c
Jams, pure fruit, assorted flavors, 32 ounce jar.....	10c
Sugar Corn, Bohemian brand, Saturday 3 cans.....	25c
10 lb. sack finest Table Salt, Saturday price.....	8c
4 ounce bottle imported Queen Olives, Saturday price.....	49c
16 ounce bottle imported Queen Olives, Saturday price.....	19c
Finest Maine Corn, packed cans, per can.....	12c
Strawberries, large cans, 3 cans for.....	25c
Fresh Michigan fruit, choice of Red and Blackberries, Cherries, Gooseberries, 3 for.....	25c
Hartley's Marmalade, pound jar for.....	16c
Pruines, fancy California brands, large and juicy, 3 lbs.....	25c
Fancy seeded Raisins, big package.....	9c
Fancy seeded Currants, large package.....	9c
Imported Macaroni or Spaghetti, 2 packages.....	15c
Hillman's finest Creamery Butter, per pound.....	30c

TELEPHONE 805

CITY TRANSFER CO
Now located at Glauber's Stable.
We are ready for all kinds of hauling.
TELEPHONE 499

EIGHT STRAIGHT
AND STILL GOING

Paducah Warriors Win Another Hard Fought Game.

The Danville Bunch Proves Formidable—Cairo Wins—Mattoon and Jacksonville Tie Up.

NEWS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

Team Standing.

	W	L	Pct.
Paducah	8	0	1.000
Cairo	5	3	.625
Vincennes	5	3	.625
Danville	2	6	.250
Mattoon	2	6	.250
Jacksonville	2	6	.250

Yesterday's Results.

Paducah 2, Danville 1.
Cairo 4, Vincennes 1.
Jacksonville 7, Mattoon 1.

Today's Schedule.

Danville at Paducah.
Vincennes at Cairo.
Jackson at Mattoon.

An errorless game, solid team work, desperate base running with patience at the bat, is responsible for yesterday's victory over Danville.

It was the eighth consecutive victory for the Indians, and the big 1,000 per cent mark remains intact.

Who dares to break it?

Yesterday's battle was from start to finish, and but for an unfortunate base on balls followed by a sacrifice and chance three base hit, the Indians would have closed in on the Danville aggregation with a shut-out.

Paducah scored her winning run, however, through a gift of the pitcher. It was a patient wait for four wide and high ones and "Red" Perry is the Indian whose glimmers did the work. With the bases full "Red" waited at the plate and got a walk. This forced in the second and winning run.

The story can be briefly written.

The Indians would have scored in the first inning but for a horse shoe hung on the neck of Third Baseman Spencer. He ent down, with a sensational one-handed stab, a beautiful double hit from Wetzel. Haas was on first and McClain second when the trick was turned. It was the third out, but the Indians went in with renewed courage.

In the second inning Perry and Miller were retired in order. Nippert hit out a single to right field and Fred Miller got a stroll to first. Quiesser tried to throw Miller out at first while the big pitcher was playing off the sack preparing for a steal, but the ball went wild and Wills let it go through him. Nippert scored on the play. Taylor walked and McClain grounded out, retiring the side.

In the second inning the Indians received the gift. Gilligan got four of a kind and Haas singled. Wetzel followed with a single and filled the bases. Perry waited for four and got them, forcing in the run.

The Danville aggregation got one score in the fourth inning. O'Connell walked and Holycross sacrificed him. Borrow grounded out and Quiesser scored O'Connell with a three sacker. Quiesser died on third.

The remainder of the game was a hard battle. Fred Miller played sensational ball covering 3rd on putout, throw from third to first. Wetzel had left the sack for the bunt and Haas shot the ball to third to cut off Holycross. Fred Miller was there to receive it, and but for this action it might have been a defeat for the Indians.

The summary:

Danville	ab	r	h	po	a	e
C. Fleming, 3b	5	0	0	3	1	0
Spencer, ss	5	0	1	3	3	0
Hayworth, fl	3	0	1	2	0	0
Wills, 1b	4	0	1	7	0	0
O'Connell, 2b	3	1	1	1	2	0
Holycross, rf	2	0	1	3	0	0
Borrow, cf	3	0	0	1	1	0
Quiesser, c	3	0	2	4	2	1
Seiby, p	4	0	0	0	2	0

Totals	32	1	7	24	11	1
--------	----	---	---	----	----	---

Paducah	ab	r	h	po	a	e
Taylor, cf	2	0	0	0	0	0
McClain, lf	2	0	0	1	0	0
Gilligan, 2b	3	1	0	0	10	0
Haas, 1b	3	0	2	14	1	0
Wetzel, 3b	3	0	1	1	1	0
Perry, ss	3	0	0	1	6	0
M. Miller, rf	4	0	0	1	6	0
Nippert, c	3	1	1	6	0	0
Fred Miller, p	2	0	1	2	1	0

Totals	25	2	5	27	15	0
--------	----	---	---	----	----	---

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Danville	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0
Paducah	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

Two base hits—Quiesser.

Stolen bases—Taylor, McClain. Sacrifice hits—Holycross, Wetzel. Three base hits—Quiesser.

Double plays—Burrow to Spencer. Bases on balls—Off Selby 6; off Miller 4.

Struck out—By Selby 3; by Miller 4.

Malaria Makes Pale Blood.

The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic drives out malaria and builds up the system. Sold by all dealers for 27 years. Price 50 cents.

OUR GREAT REMOVAL SALE STILL GOING ON

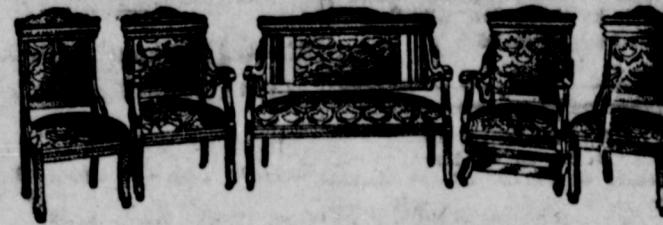

You should not miss this opportunity. Our specially low prices are worth your consideration. The matter of money need not stand between you and this great sale, for our credit system is at your service—A broad, liberal credit that adapts itself to your income and circumstances, and has no unpleasant features. A charge account at our store is a great convenience. Do not fail to take advantage of it.

Parlor Suits

and

Odd Pieces

A good variety to select from.

Three-piece Parlor Suits
Mahogany finish, hand-somely carved

$18.00

$1.00 cash and 50c per week.

India Seats

Upholstered in leather and velour, oak and mahogany finish. Our special price this week

82c

EXTENSION TABLES

That are not expensive. Golden oak, 48x48 inch top

$7.50

Terms $1.00 down
50c per week

Princess Dressers
Polished and quartered oak, at prices from $2.50 to $30
Terms to suit customer.

The Herrick Refrigerator

The kind that does not taint the food, odorless spruce lined, no zinc to corrode or mould. We are so confident of the Herrick's superiority that we are willing for you to take one and use it for 30 days free. If you are not convinced in that time that the Herrick is the refrigerator for you, send it back.

Your Credit
is Good

F.N. GARDNER, JR. & CO.

124-126-128-130 South Third Street

Your Credit
is Good

game in the Paducah-Cairo series this circuit. Cairo comes Tuesday

Wednesday and Thursday and Paducah plays in Cairo Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

"The phony Champs, the Hoosiers stand about as much show of winning the rag this year as a man would in an attempt to bale out the Ohio river with a teaspoon."—Cairo Bulletin.

Ladies' day today and a big crowd of ladies out to see the battling warriors put the third defeat on the Danville Willites.

Where is that fellow who said Danville would get two out of three from Paducah?

The Indians play the game from start to finish. That is what makes them win their games. They never "get it up in their necks," but play the game all the time.

The fans are wondering if Paducah has a wonderful staff of pitchers or if the visiting teams have bad hitters. Both, we think.

Tadlock or South today.

The Hoosiers next.

Cairo will see the first Sunday

Iles—Bobe and Moran; Puttman, McFarland and Raub.

American League.

Cleveland, 15; Chicago, 1. Parties—Bernhard and Clarke; Walsh Smith and Sullivan.

New York-Washington — cold weather.

Boston, 1; Philadelphia, 5. Parties—Harris and Peterson; Bender and Schrengengost.

Call at The Sun office to see the new things in fancy stationery—the die stamped in bronze and mother-of-pearl. This is the very latest thing and the makes the handsomest production the engravers have yet turned out. If you have your old monogram dies, it can be done from them. Call to see the work, and get prices. The Sun Job Rooms.

GRIP-IT: the cold-euro test does the work in 8 hours, and will not make you sick. Try it.

IS IT TAYLOR OR CARMACK?

Tennessee's Sensational Primary Ends Saturday

With Fair Deal the Former Governor Has Chance to Down the Machine.

INTEREST IN RACE IS INTENSE

Nashville, Tenn., May 11.—The most memorable political campaign ever known in Tennessee will come to a close tonight and on Saturday the democrats of the state will hold a primary election for the purpose of selecting the man who shall serve them in the United States senate as successor to the present senior senator, the Hon. E. W. Carmack. The senator is opposed in his contest for a second term by ex-Gov. R. L. Taylor, who for three terms occupied the executive chair of this state.

The contest for senator practically began last fall, when several open letters from both candidates were published. This public correspondence was followed by an active campaign on the stump which practically covered every county in the state, and during which both candidates made more than 100 speeches, being received by large crowds. The friends of both candidates have completed thorough organizations in every county of the state, and are hard at work for their candidate. Both sides seem confident of success.

While it cannot be denied that if the primary had been held several months ago Gov. Taylor would have certainly received the nomination, there has been such a decided change of sentiment reported all over the state that the indications are that the senator will be victorious by a safe majority. The result of the primary will, however, doubtless be close.

The campaign has had many sensational features, charges and counter charges having been freely indulged in on both sides. The interest is now most intense, and the lines are tightly drawn by the opposing forces. Senator Carmack will close his campaign with a rally here to-night, and Gov. Taylor with a rally at Jackson also tonight.

BUY MAYFIELD MILL.

The Keivils, of Princeton, to Locate in Graves' capital.

Mayfield, Ky., May 11.—Wednesday afternoon Wilford Stunston & Co., sold their big mill on North Ninth street to R. U. Keivil & Sons of Princeton, Ky. The new owners will take charge in ten days.

The old firm, composed of R. O. Wilford, J. L. Stunston and Lindsay Hale, has been doing business for the past few years at this location, and have built up a considerable business.

R. U. Keivil & Sons are old time millers and have met with perhaps more success than any other firm of its kind in this end of the state.

The senior Mr. Keivil has been in the mill business at Princeton for many years.

One of the sons, Urey Keivil, Jr., will come to Mayfield to take charge of their new business.

ON A PLEASURE JAUNT.

Retired Capitalist Passes Paducah With Fleet of Fine Boats.

Mr. Lafayette Lamb, of Clinton, a retired capitalist, passed Paducah yesterday aboard one of his four pleasure crafts which he is taking to Louisville on a pleasure excursion.

Mr. Lamb has some of the finest pleasure boats on the inland rivers. The four which passed Paducah are the yacht "Wanderer," houseboat "Idler," yacht "Chaperone" and house boat "Summer Girl." In the party with Captain Lamb are Mrs. Lafayette Lamb, Capt. Lee Gordon, Mrs. R. Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bingham, Mme. Bingham, Mrs. Geo. McDade, Mrs. E. B. McCullough, the Misses McCullough, George Wilson, Commodore J. I. Dooley and Captain Thomas Dawson.

What a Boy Did.

An illustration of what a boy can do was demonstrated at Danbury, N.H., the other day when by the purchase of valuable farm property Dexter J. Perkins became Danbury's heaviest taxpayer.

Mr. Perkins was one of the last little town charges sold under the old pitiless system of auctioning off little boys. That was fifty years ago. He was one of six children. His mother died and his father, being ill and unable to provide for his little flock, appealed to the selectmen. The auction of the lad was advertised by the town crier throughout the village as a town charge.

From a boy without a cent, without shoes or stockings, and with ragged clothing, Dexter J. Perkins' ambition, energy and shrewdness have won for him the distinction of being the most prominent man in Danbury.

Judge not today, lest tomorrow the ones judged will be evening up a judgment against you.

WARM days call for discarding those hot garments you have worn all winter.

You have no idea how much better the cool negligee makes you feel until you try it. Then, too, Belts, Neckwear and Underclothing, Hats and Night Garments are suggested by the warm weather. Suffice it to say that we are headquarters for these things, and we have what you want at the price you want to pay.

Negligee Shirts

IT is now negligee shirt time. Supply yourself while our stock is complete. See the new weaves in Oxfords, Cheviots, Chambries and lighter weight cloths in all the season's newest patterns and colors—lavendar, pink, etc. Among other celebrated lines we have the famous "Star" and "Wallerstein's" makes. The latter is made especially for us, according to our own ideas.

FROM $1.00 UP

The Value of a Suit of Clothes

Depends to a great extent on the manner in which it is made and trimmed. Almost any reliable house can be depended upon for honesty so far as fabrics are concerned. Fit, style and tailoring require ability, skill. You want fabrics of quality to be sure, but you must have these other things, too. You should not judge clothes only by the fabrics. We'd like to show you our idea of value—you would better understand our argument on clothes.

See Our Atterbury Clothes

HOSIERY

YOU never get overstocked on summer Hosiery. It would pay you to "stock up" now from the new and beautiful assortment we have imported. No department in our store has more attention than our hosiery, and today we show many new styles for low quartered shoes—Lisles in black and tan, also in all the new shades—mulberry, gray, brown, etc., mercerized silk creations and the solid silks, so popular for the low quarter.

25 Cents the Pair and Up

The Most Popular Boys' Suit Today is the Double Breasted

We are showing them in bright spring patterns, also blues and blacks. Coats double sewed throughout, sag-proof pockets; pants double knees and seats, reinforced crotches; built to stand rough usage. Moderately priced at

$2.50, $3.00, $4.00, $5.00 AND HIGHER

Have you seen our ROMPING SUITS—made like a union suit; of gray chambrey with white piping, for the children to play in? They are something new and convenient. Ages 2 1/2 to 9 75c each

LADIES' BELTS

A complete line of Ladies' Wash Belts from 25 cents up to the fine ones with pearl buckles at 75 cents. :: :: ::

Children's Department

Wallerstein's
MEN'S AND BOY'S OUTFITTERS
3rd AND BROADWAY
PADUCAH, KY.

LADIES' STOCKS

A complete line of Ladies' Stocks from 25 cents up to the finest with handsome neat embroideries at $1.50. :: :: ::

Children's Department

Some Facts About the New Russian Parliament.

Meeting place is Tauride palace, St. Petersburg.

Parliament granted by czar August 19, 1905.

Consists of two bodies—the council of the empire and the duma, or national assembly.

Half the council is appointed by the czar and the other half by the nobles and clergy.

Duma has 371 elected members.

Constitutional democrats have clear working majority in duma. Both bodies have equal legislative powers.

Their oath of office is: "We promise to perform our duties to the best of our knowledge and ability in all loyalty to his majesty, and mindful only of the welfare of Russia."

Ministers are eligible to election to the duma.

Sessions of both the duma and a council of the empire are public.

Closure of a debate may be voted by a majority.

Members of both bodies are immune from arrest during the session, except by permission of the bodies to which they belong, unless guilty of flagrant offenses.

Only bills passed by both bodies may be submitted for the emperor's sanction.

Bills rejected by the emperor may not be brought forward again in the course of the same session of parliament.

Bills rejected by one of the legislative bodies require imperial assent before being reintroduced.

The czar retains the power to dissolve parliament at will and to promote "temporary" laws during recess.

The duma cannot consider the reports of the minister of finance, charges of malfeasance against officials of the government, the establishment of stock companies with special privileges, and questions relating to entailed estates, titles of nobility.

More Civil Service Examinations.

This will be a summer of civil service examinations, and hundreds of Americans all over the United States will stand examinations in every branch of the service.

Already there are over 100 bulletins announcing the examinations and the following are the latest received this morning by Civil Service Examiner Fred Ashton:

Assistant agriculturist, June 6 1906.

Engineer and carpenter, June 13 1906.

Assistant Dairyman, June 13 1906.

Mechanical superintendent, bureau of prisons, Manila P. I., June 13 1906.

Light by Tomorrow.

It is thought that the repairs being made to the boiler foundation and machinery at the city power house, which has necessitated the shutting down of the plant and the continuation of the city street lighting service will be completed by tomorrow night. The work has been pushed rapidly and only a little remains to be done.

Beatrice Sacchi, a professor at tua and the holder of a doctor's gree, is the first woman to vote in Italy. There is no law in Italy preventing a woman from voting. Miss Sacchi discovered this and voted.

GRIP-IT: the cold-care that does the work in 8 hours, and will not make you sick. Try it.

PLAID REEFERS TONY, TOO!

The new cuts in the summer coats is what varied styles and plaids and advise every one to see the new swell coats before they are gone.

Prices $5.98 to $10

317 Broadway

LOCAL LINES.

—For Dr. Pendley ring 416.

—Fresh tube roses and caladium bulbs at Brunson's.

—City subscribers to the Daily Sun who wish the delivery of their papers stopped must notify our collectors or make their requests direct to The Sun office. No attention will be paid to such orders when given to our carriers. Sun Pub Co.

—For this week only The Leopard Spots, Law of the Land, St. Elmo and one hundred and fifty other books just as good, for 50c per copy. At P. D. Clements & Co. Book Store.

—Cafe at the Belvedere Hotel is now open day and night. Second and Broadway.

—Dr. J. V. Voris, dentist, 200 Fraternity building.

—Cafe at the Belvedere Hotel is now open day and night. Second and Broadway.

—People who have patronized transfer companies elsewhere will bear ts out in the statement, that our service is second to none and prices lower for like service, than in any city. Let us serve you. Palmer Transfer Co.

—Excursion to Smithland Sunday May 13, on the steamer Dick Fowler 25 miles for 25 cents. Leaves wharf at 2 p.m. Returns at 6 p.m. McNeely's orchestra. Refreshments order will be maintained. This excursion for white people only. No intoxicating drinks. 25 cents.

—The Cadiz railroad, which connects with the I. C. R. R. at Gracey is now running three trains a day over its line. The fact is of interest to travelers.

—Two cows were arrested today for roaming at large unattended in the city limits. They are being held in the city pen pending prosecution.

—Cafe at the Belvedere Hotel is now open day and night. Second and Broadway.

—The Sun office is prepared to furnish the very best things in engraved or printed calling cards for graduates, and is making special prices now, for a few days. Orders should be placed at once in time for the commencement.

—Geo. Knight, an employee of the Paducah Basket company, had his left hand badly mashed in a joinder this forenoon about 11:30. He was attended by Dr. Robertson.

—Why bother, get in line and clean out those mean roaches, mice and rats. Use Kamleiter's exterminator.

—Miss Runge, stenographer and notary public. Palmer House.

—Dr. Gilbert, Osteopath, 400 1-2 Broadway. Phone 196.

—The Sun office is prepared to furnish the very best things in engraved or printed calling cards for graduates, and is making special prices now, for a few days. Orders should be placed at once in time for the commencement.

AN INVITATION.

Our new exchange has been completed and the public is respectfully invited to visit the operating rooms between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Sundays excepted.

Our switch board is the most modern up-to-date board in the south and no expense has been spared to secure the latest inventions and improvements known to the telephone art which is a guarantee of rapid service to our subscribers.

We employ more than 75 operators to operate this switchboard and more than this number of other employees to maintain lines and install new subscribers.

We will take pleasure in showing all visitors through the plant.

With the doctor's written orders. In following this rule we have the advantage of a very large and complete stock to draw from. Furthermore, prescriptions brought to us cannot fall into the hands of inexperienced persons, because in our store is a registered pharmacist.

Every Clerk

R. W. WALKER CO.
Incorporated
DRUGGISTS
Fifth and 8th Streets. Both Phones 175
Night bell at side door.

EAST TENNESSEE TELEPHONE COMPANY.

People and Pleasant Events

Staten-Grief Wedding.
Mr. M. E. Staten and Miss Fannie Bell Grief were married at 8 o'clock last evening at the residence of the young lady, 534 Jackson street, Rev. T. J. Newell officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few friends and relatives, the wedding being a quiet home affair to which only a few intimate friends and the family had been invited.

Mr. Staten is manager of a local art gallery and has been in Paducah several years. He is a young man of popularity and much business worth.

Miss Grief is a well known and popular young lady of the South Side. She is the daughter of the late J. V. Grief.

Mr. and Mrs. Staten will reside at 415 Fountain avenue, where the groom recently completed a new residence.

The Elephant Club.

Mr. Muscoe Burnett was the host of the Elephant club last evening at his home in the West end. It was a pleasant affair.

This club is one of the oldest in the city. It dates from the ante-bellum days, and among its founders were Messrs. Watts and Given, Mr. G. F. Rabb, Mr. George Langstaff and other prominent citizens of that time. Mr. Q. Q. Quigley is the only charter member now remaining. He was present last evening and is the center about which the club revolves.

The club has never been allowed to discontinue, the places all being filled as soon as made vacant, by younger men, so it has quite an historical place in the town. The meetings are always events, but they are held only semi-occasionally.

Dual Card Parties.

Mrs. John W. Scott was the hostess of the Sans Souci club this morning at her home on Madison street. It was a very pleasant club affair.

This afternoon Mrs. Scott and her mother Mrs. May Rieke are entertaining very delightfully at cards in honor of their married lady friends.

Sunday Evening Song Service.

Mr. Harry Gilbert has arranged an elaborate song service for Sunday evening at the First Christian church. The choir will number 16 persons, and will be assisted by Deal's orchestra.

The church has no minister now, so the music will cover the entire evening.

Club Entertained Tonight.

The As You Like It club will be entertained this evening by Mrs. Bertha F. Campbell at her home on Broadway, in compliment to her guests Mrs. Charles Mohr and Mrs. Georgia Gage of Mobile, Alabama.

Among the guests at The Palmer today were: S. G. Buckner, Hopkinsville, Ky.; J. T. Edwards, Clarksville, Tenn.; H. D. Daniel, Chicago; E. L. Rominger, St. Louis; W. A. Cunningham, St. Louis; Henry H. Levy, New York; C. L. Meyers, Nashville; F. J. Wilekney, Louisville; C. C. Cook, Chicago; J. A. Stegar and wife, Princeton, Ky.; N. O. Custer, St. Louis; Morris Shyer, Cincinnati; Jno. W. Whedon, Louisville; D. G. Mackenzie, Chicago; R. G. McKee Metropolis, Ill.; S. M. Stewart, Metropolis, Ill.

Belvedere guests today: Wm. L. McCawley, Metropolis, Ill.; Jake Bloom, Atlanta; Fred Meyer, Louisville; N. Heyman, New York; D. G. Duncan, Cleveland, O.; A. W. Henning, St. Louis; Ed Schrader, Pittsburgh.

Mrs. A. C. McClure and son Richard left for a visit in Central City today.

Miss Aline Hershberg, who has been visiting Mrs. S. E. Lamb, of 1324 Jefferson street, returned home this morning to Central City.

Attorney J. S. Ross went to Benton this morning on business.

Mr. Pat McElrath, of Benton, returned home this morning after a business trip to the city.

Mr. Frank B. May went to Murray this morning on business.

Mr. C. F. Akers, of the I. C. shops is ill.

Mr. Bell Given, of the local I. C. has gone to Chicago on business.

Capt. James Koger returned night before last from Nashville with an attack of chills, from which he has been confined to his home for a day or two.

Miss Garnette Buckner will leave Saturday for a week's visit to Mayfield. She will attend the graduation exercises of the school there.

Miss Lotta Thomas is visiting in Mayfield.

Miss Druthy Cathey, after three weeks' visit here, left yesterday for her home in Mayfield.

Miss Berdie Melton, of Mayfield, has returned home after visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Iseman have returned from Oklahoma City, where they had gone prospecting. They liked the country but have not definitely determined to go there to reside.

Judge Lilburn C. Linn and son, Will, of Murray, have gone to Chickasaw, I. T., to locate. They were among the best known and most respected residents of Caloway.

Capt. J. F. Melton has gone to Lynnville, Ky., to visit relatives.

Capt. C. E. Gridley will return today from Battle Creek, Mich., where she has been for her health.

Mrs. Ed Alexander, wife of the well known patrolman, will return from Kennett, Mo., after a visit to friends and relatives.

Attorney C. C. Grassham went to Morgantown this morning on business.

Miss Kate Wire came in from Mayfield today to visit Miss Nella Hatfield.

Rev. T. J. Newell left this afternoon for Birmingham, Ala., to attend the general conference of the M. E. church, South, in session there. His pulpit at the Broadway Methodist church will be filled Sunday by Rev. G. H. Sullivan of Paris, Tenn.

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of Pembroke, Ky., and Miss Mary Lee Mayes of Prospect, Tenn., are visiting Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Smith.

Miss May Taylor, of Smithland Ky., is the guest of Miss Willie Willis on North Sixth street.

Mrs. Wm. Darnell and son have gone to Reeves, Ill., to visit.

Miss Louise Champion, of Chicago is visiting Mrs. John Holmes, of South Second street.

Dr. L. W. Armentraut, of Mt. Vernon, O., is visiting his son, Mr. L. V. Armentraut, of the city.

Mrs. A. M. Ragsdale has been called home to North Judson, Ind., by the death of her mother.

Mrs. Jennie Bradley, of this city is visiting her niece Mrs. J. W. Fry of Meeker, Ky.

Mrs. R. E. Smith, Mrs. Ben Bowden, Mrs. R. L. Mahan, Miss Rudy Morrow and Miss Addie Morrow, of Mayfield, combined a day of pleasure and shopping in the city today.

Rev. G. W. Hill and wife, of this city, are visiting in Mayfield.

Mr. J. T. Overstreet, the I. and O. engineer of Newark, O., who is en route to Memphis, where he will attend the engineers' convention, is visiting his parents on Jackson St.

Mrs. A. J. Decker has been sick for several days and this morning for a few hours was very ill. She has been having chills, and her heart was affected today. She is thought, however, to be out of danger.

Dr. M. M. Cooley was called to Waverly Tenn., this morning by the precarious illness of an aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Karnes are the happy parents of a son, born to-day.

PEABODY WILL TELL, WHAT HE KNOWS

Jerome Issues Summons for the President of the Mutual Life.

WANTED—Tea and coffee solicitor. H. Spaulding, old phone 1765.

UMBRELLA repairing and covering neatly done, 108½ S. Third St.

G. W. WHITWORTH & BRO., carpenters contractors and builders. Phone 2339.

WILLIAMS, 538 S. Third, Furniture bought and sold. New phone 900-a.

FOR RENT—Five rooms over Kameleiter's grocery. Apply to Henry Kameleiter.

WANTED—Girl for general house work in family of two. Old phone 227.

CLEANING and pressing neatly done. James Duffey, old phone 718-r.

BOUGENO BROS.—Contractors and builders. Job and Cabinet work. Phone 1829.

FOR SALE—A splendid pony, six years old, thirteen hands high, sound. Apply to 1207 Jefferson.

FOR SALE—Folding bed, hall rack, marble top wash stand, sideboard and piano. Apply at 303 corner Ninth and Monroe.

LOST—White and liver colored pointer bird dog. Any information leading to his recovery will be rewarded. Fred Rudy.

MONEY TO LOAN on any good security. S. T. Randie, Real Estate and Insurance, Room 3, American German National Bank Bldg.

FREE—All who wish a free copy of a book describing the San Francisco earthquake address 1549 Trimble St., Paducah, Ky.

PIANOS—Low prices and easy payments. Pianos rented, tuned and repaired. Fred P. Watson & Bro. Victor H. Thomas, Mgr. Wahl's Old Stand, Phone 53-R, 311 Broadway.

—STORE ROOM FOR RENT—No 206 South Third street, recently occupied by Garner Bros' furniture store. Newly repaired; sewer connections. Apply to S. A. Fowler.

WANTED—To hire one or two counters 38 or 39 inches high and from 12 to 20 feet long, for use in Paducah city office, I. C. R. R., 510 Broadway.

CONTRACTOR WEIKEL—Masonry and concrete work a specialty. Office 126 South Fourth. Phone 490. Residence phone 1237. Prompt attention on all estimates.

J. E. MORGAN, blacksmith, 409 S. Third. Old phone 487. Superior work guaranteed. Exclusive agent.

TIPS.

DO YOU EVER stop to think what a market place these columns are? It is remarkable the number of ways in which The Sun's want ads columns are used. If you have anything at all for sale, you will most probably find a purchaser by putting in a little want ad. Some one may be looking for just what you want. Try it.

IT IS INCONCEIVABLE what you can do through the medium of an ad in this column. It is the most widely read column in the paper, and is verily the market place for the people who have anything they wish to dispose of, houses to rent, rooms to rent, will take boarders, have lost anything and so on through the list. Try it yourself.

IN CLEANING HOUSE, did you find some old clothes, or furniture or ornaments you have no use for? Try selling them by a little want ad in this column. You may strike the right person at the right time.

ARE YOU DISSATISFIED for any reason with the house you live in? Get another through this column. There are a host of desirable houses in Paducah just now, and you will get what you want.

WOULD YOU LIKE a few boarders, advertise for them in this column. Every day we get tired of our boarding houses and would welcome a change if we knew where to go. You will find it by a Tips ad.

IF YOU ARE going away for the summer, the Tips column will rent your furnished house for you, or your rooms.

OVERSTREET, the painter. Old phone 2305.

HEATING and stove wood, Frank Levin, both phones, 437.

FOR RENT—Two rooms at 123 North Seventh street. Phone 2107.

FOR DRY Cook wood ring 1704 old phone.

LOST—Small cross. Finder please return to this office.

WANTED—Tea and coffee solicitor. H. Spaulding, old phone 1765.

UMBRELLA repairing and covering neatly done, 108½ S. Third St.

G. W. WHITWORTH & BRO., carpenters contractors and builders. Phone 2339.

WANTED—Position by an experienced man as collector, assistant bookkeeper or shipping clerk. I have my own typewriter. Address M. care Sun.

STEVE ETTER'S ware rooms, 908 south Fifth street. Built of brick; concrete floor, rat proof. Furniture stored for

Young Girls

Avoid The Dangers and Sufferings of Womanhood

Many a girl who graduates from high school or female college with a brilliant record and high standing is broken down before she is twenty.

Nowadays girls are pushed to the limit of their endurance both in school and society. They must make a success — even if they are forever unfitted for the larger school of life and debarred from the happiness of motherhood.

At this time of life, when just entering upon womanhood, nature makes heavy drains upon the vitality, especially at each monthly period.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

the most wonderful of all tonic restorative medicines for women, will tide a young girl over this trying time and bring her safely into strong, noble, beautiful womanhood.

Experience of a Beautiful High School Girl

Her First Letter.
MY DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I write to see if you can suggest some means to cure me. A little more than a year ago I was unwell for the first time, and since then I have been sick all the time in some way or other and suffered with painful and irregular periods. I went to a summer resort for my health and was doctorless all summer, but to no effect. I have not been unwell for two months and thought I would see if you could do me any good. I attend High School and would not like to miss any time if it is possible. MARION BARBER, North Adams, Mass.

Miss Barber writes again after two years

MY DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Some time ago I wrote to you for advice, being troubled with irregular and painful periods and female troubles. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and using the Sanative Wash, and I am glad to say I am completely cured and have not had any sickness since. I wish to thank you for your kind advice and shall recommend your medicine to my girl friends. MARION BARBER, 101 Bracewell Ave., North Adams, Mass.

Free Advice for Young Girls

All young girls are earnestly urged to write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for twenty-five years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge. Thousands of women are well, strong and beautiful to-day because they made a confidant of Mrs. Pinkham and followed her instructions at this critical time of their lives.

16 MIGHTY MAY SPECIALS

We shall place on sale for Friday and Saturday promptly at store opening time, sixteen of the strongest values that our keenest merchandizing skill can produce. They illustrate, as never before, the power of price; and each one is an open challenge to any competition to produce an equal value.

No. 1	20 pieces Linen Lawn, yard wide and all linen, a 35c value for.....	25c
No. 2	1 piece Mercerized Dress Linen, dark brown color, a 40c value for per yard.....	18c
No. 3	1 piece of Mercerized Span Silk, dark brown color, a 38c quality for.....	15c
No. 4	1 piece of black India Silk, 27 inches wide, a 75c value for.....	49c
No. 5	5 pieces Dress Silk, small checks and stripes, some were 60c and some were 49c; your choice per yard.....	39c
No. 6	5 pieces of Fancy Dress Silks, this Spring's newest styles, values $1.00, for per yard.....	59c
No. 7	1 piece of Embroidered Linen Suiting, white, all linen with embroidered figure, $1.00 value, per yard.....	49c
No. 8	A lot of Torchon Laces, all linen, per yard.....	5c
No. 9	A lot of Embroidery, edgings and insertions, per yd.....	10c
No. 10	50 Umbrellas, black twill gloria, with handsome handles, at.....	$1.00
No. 11	Gents' Shirts, tan color, with soft collar attached, each at.....	50c
No. 12	5 pieces of Rajah Silk, the genuine $1.25 value, per yard for.....	75c
No. 13	50 pieces of Lawas, white grounds, colored figures, a 5c value at.....	4c
No. 14	Ladies' Ribbed Cotton Tights, summer weight, a 50c quality at 15c or 2 for.....	25c
No. 15	50 dozen Gents' Socks, black with white feet, at 10c or 3 pair for.....	25c
No. 16	Ladies elbow length silk Mitts lace all over, at.....	25c

L. B. Ogilvie & Co.
Broadway and Fourth

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE SUN--TEN CENTS A WEEK

NEW FORM

NEW PRESBYTERIAN PRAYER BOOK IS OUT.

Many Churches May Not Adopt the Innovation of a Prayer Ritual.

New York May 11.—The new book of common worship has just been published with the authority of the Presbyterian general assembly. For three years a special committee on forms and services for the general assembly, headed by the Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dyke, has been working on this new "prayer book" and the first copies of the completed book have just been received from the Presbyterian official board of publication. The title page of the book bears this significant announcement: "For voluntary use in churches."

This is the first time a prayer book has been offered for use in the Presbyterian church. The opposition to the book in the general assembly last year was particularly strong from Western missionaries. One of these sturdy representatives of the cloth expressed the sentiments of himself and fellow s as follows:

Canned Prayers Too Much.

"Out of our way we have to eat canned vegetables, canned meat and canned milk, but we can't stand for canned prayers."

Now that the Presbyterian prayer book has been published, all that remains for those who are opposed to it is to refrain from its use, and it is predicted by Presbyterian leaders that a large number of churches will so refrain. But in the East and in the large cities of the country generally the new book is expected to be largely used.

As to the book itself, a number of Presbyterian pastors of the city are unanimous in the opinion that the work of Dr. Van Dyke's committee had been ably done. The book is arranged conveniently, the contents are such that practically all the regular and special church occasions are provided for, and more than one clergyman said the book would prove most useful, even if it were to be used only by a minister for his own guidance, and not put in the hands of the people of the congregation.

"Obey" Not in Marriage Form.

In many particulars the book has points of similarity with the Episcopal book of common prayer. Some Episcopalians said that some of the forms of services and many of the prayers were, with a change of a word or two bodily taken from their prayer book. To this assertion a Presbyterian editor made reply that as a matter of fact, the makers of the prayer book of the Episcopal church themselves had drawn on some older sources.

Women will be especially interested in the marriage ceremony in the new book, for it omits the word "obey" and it also omits reference to the "worldly goods" with which the man or woman in the Episcopal and some other marriage forms "endowed" each other.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure."

Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by McPherson's drug store. Price 50c.

The solicitor was instructed to proceed with the telephone litigation the board not desiring to effect a compromise.

The Paducah Carnival Association was granted the usual concession and privileges, Alderman Starks voting nay. He first ruled this motion out of order, but Alderman Palmer took an appeal from the chair and the matter was unanimously taken up and favorably acted on.

The board adjourned to meet again Monday night at 7:30.

WE ARE OFFERING

Two Quart Fountain Syring FOR 75c

Three Qt. Fountain Syring FOR $1.00

Each fully guaranteed for one year at

SMITH & NAGEL
DRUG STORE

Cor. Fourth and B'way.

Paducah, Ky.

A HEROINE

HELPLESS GIRL IS CALLED "BRAVEST IN THE WORLD"

Nellie Nichols, Helpless Cripple, Organizes Society to Promote Cheerfulness.

Solon Springs, Wis., May 11.—This is the story of Nellie Carolyn Nichols, heroine:

She is 18 years old. She has never saved a life. She has never won a Carnegie medal. But her friends say she has fairly earned the title of "the bravest girl in the world."

For years and years she has never risen from her bed in a little cottage here. She is afflicted with spinal trouble, and cannot move her feet. Doctors tell her that she will never rise, that her case is incurable.

Yet she is cheerful. She has organized a "sunshine society," of which she is president. She has written a book. She contributes to magazines and newspapers. She laughs whenever she can.

She never allows herself to become gloomy, or to brood over her troubles.

The girl is absolutely helpless. She can move her hands and her head, but that is all. So sensitive are the paralyzed portions of her body that a frame is necessary to keep the weight of the bedclothes off her feet.

The best specialists of America have examined Miss Nichols, and her parents have spent a small fortune in the vain hope of curing her. All hope has now been given up.

To occupy her mind the girl took to writing and soon developed literary talent. She contributes largely to two magazines, both in prose and verse. She has written an illustrated book on her life and views. The proceeds of this and other literary work go toward building additions to the tiny cottage in which she lives.

Miss Nichols, finding that many "shutins" had not her own courage and cheerfulness in the face of adversity, set about organizing a league which she named the "Sunburst Sunshine Association," which has 97 members in various parts of the country—all bedridden invalids. It has a monthly organ, called "Heartrest," published at Manhattan, Nevada.

Several ministers have become greatly interested in the young girl, through sermons which she has written, displaying an unusual depth of thought and theological learning. They are aiding her in the efforts to win literary recognition.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for sore lungs, coughs and colds, at McPherson's Drug Store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Calvert City Farmer Dies.
John Dodge, age 58, a farmer of the Calvert City neighborhood, died of pneumonia yesterday after a brief illness. He leaves eight children and the funeral will be held today from his home. Interment near Calvert City.

PRESS THE BUTTON

EAGLE FLASH

SELF FILLING FOUNTAIN PEN

The Simplest—Surest—Safer—Handiest and only Perfect Self-Filling Pen. No glass tube—no ink to spill—no clogging or shaking.

You simply press the button (as in picture) and the pen fills in a "dash."

Writes the instant it touches the paper

Eagle $1.50 Flash

No. 24 with 14 karat solid gold pen point—finest vulcanized rubber and fully guaranteed.

Eagle "Flash" No. 25 with gold bands, $2.50

Eagle "Flash" No. 26, large size, $3.00 with gold bands, $4.00

Sold by Stationers and Other Stores

Ask YOUR DEALER. If he doesn't sell you the Eagle "Flash" Fountain Pen, send the retail price direct to us. Each pen absolutely guaranteed.

Eagle Pencil Co.

Manufacturers

377 Broadway, New York

WALLERSTEIN'S
Are Exclusive Distributors in this city for the Atterbury

The Habit of a Gentleman

Don't you know that the Atterbury System is a gigantic tailor shop and not a manufacturing plant? Don't you know that Atterbury System clothes are all hand-made, and that its plan is the only one that can put taste or style into a suit or overcoat?

Atterbury System Label on every garment

Atterbury Suits and Overcoats $20 to $40

The Atterbury System

Offices and Tailor Shops

110-112 Fifth Avenue, New York

Reading Bicycles & Motor Cycles

If you intend to purchase a bicycle this spring do not fail to see our line of Reading Standard Bicycles, which cannot be surpassed in strength, durability, elegance and speed, guaranteed to be one of the best bicycles made, having attained more world's records than any other make. Models of the Reading, Laclede, West Minster and Windsor Juveniles can be seen at our store, where we will be pleased to have you call and examine them.

Thoroughbred Motorcycle

If you wish a luxury in the bicycle line call and see our Thoroughbred Motorcycle. Not the cheapest but the best the manufacturers can produce.

Our Repair Shop

We wish to call attention to our repair shop, which is the best equipped in the city, having machinery for turning out all required parts and the latest improved labor saving devices. Work done by experienced mechanics and satisfaction is guaranteed. We solicit a liberal share of your patronage.

S. E. MITCHELL 326-328
Old phone 2451-r. New phone 743

PADDLE YOUR OWN CANOE

Be independent! Be in a position to strike out for yourself.

You cannot take advantage of the next opportunity unless you have some money saved up.

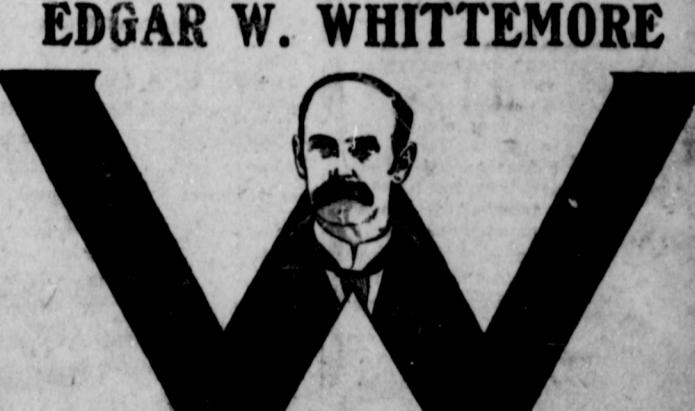

Start an account at this bank. Money added to regularly grows fast. We pay 4 per cent. compounded twice a year.

Mechanics and Farmers Savings Bank

227 Broadway

EDGAR W. WHITTEMORE

Real Estate Agency.

FREE REAL ESTATE PRICE LIST

Fraternity Building. Both Phones 835

Between Two Shores

By ELLEN GLASGOW

COPYRIGHT by the S. S.
MCCLURE CO.

He started nervously and faced her almost roughly. "Who is happy?" he demanded, sneering. "Are you?"

She shrank slightly. "Somehow I think that a woman is never happy," she responded gently, "but you—"

He leaned toward her, a swift change crossing his face, his keen labored had not annihilated all possibility of purer passion. And he often clung upon a gentler mood with burning bitterness.

"How about your faith?" he inquired one day after a passing tenderness. "Is it still the evidence of virtue not visible in me?"

She flinched, as she always did at his flippancy. "There is circumstantial evidence of those," she replied, "sufficient to confound a jury."

There was a cloud upon his face. "Of the ministering angel kind, I suppose," he suggested.

"Yes."

"Your judgment is warped," he went on. "Do you expect to convince by such syllogisms as: It is virtuous to make presents of prunes; he makes me presents of prunes; therefore he is virtuous?"

She looked at him with wounded eyes. "That is not kind of you," she said.

"But, my dear lady, I am not kind. That is what I am arguing for."

Her lips closed firmly. She did not answer.

"Is the assertion admitted?" he inquired.

Her mouth quivered. He saw it, and his mood melted.

"Do you mean to say," he asked, adjusting the rug about her shoulders and regarding her with an intent gaze, "that it makes any difference to you?"

The fragment of a sob broke from her. "Of course it makes a difference," she answered, "to—to be treated so."

His hand closed firmly over the rug and rested against her shoulder.

"Why does it make a difference?" he demanded.

She stammered confusedly. "Because—because it does," she replied.

His face was very grave. The hand upon her shoulder trembled. "I hope it does not make a difference," he said. "Look! There is a sail!"

They rose and went to the railing, following with unseeing eyes a white sail that skirted the horizon. At the vessel's side porpoises were leaping on the waves. She leaned over, her eyes brightening, her loosened hair blowing about her face in soft brown strands. There was a pink flush in her cheeks. "I should like to be popular," she said, "and to skim that blue water in the sunshine. How happy they are!"

"And you are not?"

The flush died from her cheeks. "Oh, no," she answered.

He leaned nearer. His hand brushed hers as it lay upon the railing.

"Did love make you happy?" he asked suddenly.

She raised her lashes, and their eyes met. "Love?" she repeated vaguely.

"That husband of yours," he explained almost harshly, "did you love him?"

Her gaze went back to the water. A twifful tremor shook her lips. "He was very good to me," she replied.

"And I suppose you loved him because he was good. Well, the reason he was."

She looked at him steadily. "Because he was good to me," she corrected.

Then she hesitated. "But I did not love him in the way you mean," she added. "I know now that I did not."

"Eh?" he ejaculated half absently and then, "How do you know it?"

She turned from him, looking after the vanishing sail, just visible in the remote violet of the distance. "There are many ways."

"Don't what?" he demanded roughly.

"Don't curse the blackest scoundrel that ever lived—and died?" Over the last word his voice weakened as if it awoke.

"Don't curse anybody," she answered. "It is not like you."

He turned upon her suspiciously. "Pshaw! How do you know?"

"I don't know. I only believe."

"I never had much use for belief," he returned. "It is a poor sort of thing."

She met his bitter gaze with one of level calm. "And yet men have suffered death for it."

Above her head an electric jet was shining, and it cast a white light upon her small figure buried under the mass of rugs. Her eyes were glowing. There was a soft suffusion upon her lashes, whether from the salt spray or from unshed tears he could not tell.

"Well, believe in me if you choose," he said. "I won't do any harm even if it doesn't do any good."

During the next few days he nursed her with constant care. When she came out in the morning she found him waiting at the foot of the stairs, ready to assist her on deck. When she went down at night it was his arm upon which she leaned and his voice that wished her "Good night" before her stateroom door. Her meals were served outside, and she soon found that his watchfulness extended to a host of trivialities.

It was not a confidential companionship. Sometimes they sat for hours without speaking and again he attacked her with aggressive irony. At such times she smarted beneath the sting of his sneers, but it was more in pity for him than for herself. He seemed to carry in his heart a seething rage of cynicism, impassioned if impotent. When it broke control, as it often did, it lashed alike the just and the unjust, the sinner and the sinned against. It did not spare the woman for whose comfort he sacrificed himself daily in a dozen minor ways. It was as if he hated himself for the interest she inspired and hated her for inspiring it. He appeared to resent the fact that the mental pressure under which he

He smiled slightly, his eyes half sad. "I am trying to," he responded. She stamped her foot with impatience. "Then you won't succeed. I will not hate you. Do you hear? I will not."

"Is it a question of will?"

"In this case, yes."

"Do you hate as you choose—and love?" he asked.

"I don't know," she replied. "I hardly think I could hate you if I would, despite your—your hatefulnesse."

"Not though it were a part of wisdom?"

"Wisdom has nothing to do with it—With what?" he questioned.

"With love."

He shook himself free from an imaginary weight, passing his hand across his contracted brow. "Then so much the worse for hate," he responded, "and for love."

As she did not answer he spoke fiercely. "When you love, love a virtuous, straightforward plodder," he said. "Love a man because he is decent—because he is decent and plain and all the things that the romancers laugh at. Love a fool, if you will, but let him be a fool who goes to his office at 9 and leaves it at 6; who craves no more exciting atmosphere than the domestic one of house girl worries and teething babies. If you ever find yourself loving a man like me, you had better make for the nearest lamp post and hang."

"Hush!" she cried, her cheeks flaming. "How—how dare you?" Her voice broke sharply, and she fell to sobbing behind her raised hands.

"My God!" he said softly. She felt his breath upon her forehead, and a tremor passed over her. Then his hands fastened upon hers and drew them from her eyes. He was panting like a man who has run a race.

She looked at him with wounded eyes. "That is not kind of you," she said.

"But, my dear lady, I am not kind. That is what I am arguing for."

Her lips closed firmly. She did not answer.

"Is the assertion admitted?" he inquired.

Her mouth quivered. He saw it, and his mood melted.

"Do you mean to say," he asked, adjusting the rug about her shoulders and regarding her with an intent gaze, "that it makes any difference to you?"

The fragment of a sob broke from her. "Of course it makes a difference," she answered, "to—to be treated so."

His hand closed firmly over the rug and rested against her shoulder.

"Why does it make a difference?" he demanded.

She stammered confusedly. "Because—because it does," she replied.

His face was very grave. The hand upon her shoulder trembled. "I hope it does not make a difference," he said. "Look! There is a sail!"

They rose and went to the railing, following with unseeing eyes a white sail that skirted the horizon. At the vessel's side porpoises were leaping on the waves. She leaned over, her eyes brightening, her loosened hair blowing about her face in soft brown strands. There was a pink flush in her cheeks. "I should like to be popular," she said, "and to skim that blue water in the sunshine. How happy they are!"

"And you are not?"

The flush died from her cheeks. "Oh, no," she answered.

He leaned nearer. His hand brushed hers as it lay upon the railing.

"Did love make you happy?" he asked suddenly.

She raised her lashes, and their eyes met. "Love?" she repeated vaguely.

"That husband of yours," he explained almost harshly, "did you love him?"

Her gaze went back to the water. A twifful tremor shook her lips. "He was very good to me," she replied.

"And I suppose you loved him because he was good. Well, the reason he was."

She looked at him steadily. "Because he was good to me," she corrected.

Then she hesitated. "But I did not love him in the way you mean," she added. "I know now that I did not."

"Eh?" he ejaculated half absently and then, "How do you know it?"

She turned from him, looking after the vanishing sail, just visible in the remote violet of the distance. "There are many ways."

"Don't what?" he demanded roughly.

"Don't curse the blackest scoundrel that ever lived—and died?" Over the last word his voice weakened as if it awoke.

"Don't curse anybody," she answered. "It is not like you."

He turned upon her suspiciously. "Pshaw! How do you know?"

"I don't know. I only believe."

"I never had much use for belief," he returned. "It is a poor sort of thing."

She met his bitter gaze with one of level calm. "And yet men have suffered death for it."

Above her head an electric jet was shining, and it cast a white light upon her small figure buried under the mass of rugs. Her eyes were glowing. There was a soft suffusion upon her lashes, whether from the salt spray or from unshed tears he could not tell.

"Well, believe in me if you choose," he said. "I won't do any harm even if it doesn't do any good."

During the next few days he nursed her with constant care. When she came out in the morning she found him waiting at the foot of the stairs, ready to assist her on deck. When she went down at night it was his arm upon which she leaned and his voice that wished her "Good night" before her stateroom door. Her meals were served outside, and she soon found that his watchfulness extended to a host of trivialities.

It was not a confidential companionship. Sometimes they sat for hours without speaking and again he attacked her with aggressive irony. At such times she smarted beneath the sting of his sneers, but it was more in pity for him than for herself. He seemed to carry in his heart a seething rage of cynicism, impassioned if impotent. When it broke control, as it often did, it lashed alike the just and the unjust, the sinner and the sinned against. It did not spare the woman for whose comfort he sacrificed himself daily in a dozen minor ways. It was as if he hated himself for the interest she inspired and hated her for inspiring it. He appeared to resent the fact that the mental pressure under which he

The Best Guaranty of Merit Is Open Publicity.

Every bottle of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines leaving the great laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., has printed on its label the name and address of the manufacturer. This fact alone places Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines in a class all by themselves. They cannot be classed with patent or secret medicines because they are neither. This is why so many unprejudiced physicians prescribe them and recommend them to their patients. They know what they are made of, and that the ingredients are those endorsed by the most eminent medical authorities.

The further fact that neither Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great stomach and liver tonic, nor his Liver Tonic, the great regulator and blood purifier, nor his "Favor" Prescription for weak, over-worked, broken-down, nervous women, contains any alcohol, also entitles them to a place all by themselves.

Many years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that chemically pure glycerine, of proper strength, is a strong laxative and a powerful antiseptic. This is the medicinal principle residing in our indigenous, or native, medicinal plants that is alcohol; and, furthermore, that it possesses valuable medicinal properties of its own, being demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic, and a most efficient antermer.

Neither of the above medicines contains alcohol, or any harmful, habit-forming drug, as will be seen from a glance at the formula printed on each bottle wrapper. They are safe to use and potent to cure.

Not only do physicians prescribe the above named medicines, but the most intelligent people employ them—people who would not think of using the ordinary patent or secret medicines. Every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines has the strongest kind of an endorsement from leading medical writers of the several schools of practice. No other medicines put on the market purport to have any such professional endorsement.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Drugs sell them, and nothing is "just as good." Easy to take as candy.

Growing Aches and Pains. Mrs. Josie Sumner, Bremond, Tex., writes, April 15, 1902: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet, with good success. It is the best liniment I ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00.

Sold by Alvey & List.

Condition Hopeless. Mr. George Phillips, manager of the Webb-Phillips company, is dangerously ill and his condition is considered hopeless. He is lying at his mother's home on Jefferson street near Ninth in precarious condition under the constant attention of a physician and a trained nurse. He is suffering from a general breakdown of the result of a severe attack of typhoid fever last summer.

The shooting followed a quarrel at the home of W. H. Sylvester, president of the First National bank of Montezuma, who was shot and killed yesterday in his home by his brother whose mind is believed to be affected. Stephen Sylvester, the brother who did the shooting, was injured seven years ago by a fall and his mind has been affected since.

The shooting followed a quarrel at the home of W. H. Sylvester, the dead man, who was one of the most prominent men in the community.

Stephen had demanded money from his brother and a quarrel and a fight followed. A neighbor named Pitman was called in by Mrs. Sylvester and he separated the men. Stephen agreeing to return to his home, Pitman released him and Stephen drew a revolver and fired a bullet into his brother's stomach, killing him almost instantly. Stephen ran from the house to his own home and took refuge in a shed recently built by him with an iron roof and wooden walls eight inches thick. In this he had placed a number of revolvers, rifles and ammunition. He entrenched himself inside, shouting through the door that he would never be taken alive. The sheriff at once began organizing a posse and declared he would take the man dead or alive.

Stephen Sylvester is unmarried.

Contractors Must Remove Debris.

The board of public works has instructed Street Inspector Alonso Elliott to notify the contractors reconstructing Kentucky avenue and Jefferson street to remove all debris and discarded material from the streets. The contractors will be permitted to store only material used in the construction of the street, in the thoroughfares. This is done in order to preclude the possibility of an accident and damage suit against the city.

Will overcome Indigestion and dyspepsia; regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints.

It is the best blood enlivener and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise.

R. N. Andrews, editor and Mgr. Cocoa and Rockledge News, Cocoa, Fla., writes: "I have used your Herbine in my family, and find it a most excellent medicine. Its effects upon myself have been a marked benefit.

It is the best blood enlivener and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise.

Will overcome Indigestion and dyspepsia; regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints.

It is the best blood enlivener and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise.

Will overcome

EARLY SHOWING OF SOME LATE ARRIVALS

We have just gotten in about the swellest line of Two-Piece Suits you ever laid your eyes on. Somehow or other our stock seems to us more attractive than ever this spring. It may be the new weaves, the rich colorings or perhaps it is the long graceful modeling of the coat which creates this impression. But whatever it is you are dead certain to feel it on sight; EVERYBODY DOES. You may never have realized how well made a two-piece suit must be in order to rank as a "good value." Usually skeleton-lined, very little padding and all that kind of thing, it just naturally has to be made on honor in order to look like a real suit of clothes after the first week's wear or a little summer shower. Our clothes are all made on that way--on honor. You'll fell well dressed till you're "out at the elbow" in one of our Suits. From $7.50 to $20.00.

GRAY FAMILY ON FASHION DUTY AT WEILLE'S

HOW'D YOU LIKE A GRAY SUIT? Yes! You'd look all right in gray. A dawn gray, an oyster gray, a silver gray, an Oxford gray, or a gray of any other shade. And when you've seen OUR stock of grays you've seen ALL the members of the Gray family that are on fashion duty this season. Fine Worsts and Worsted Cheviots; plain or with checks, stripes or plaids; very modest and genteel, or just about as "gay as they make 'em;" in the new, body-tracing coats or conventional cuts; prices $7.50 to $20.00 for two-piece suits. Quality and style? Well! We don't like to brag--just come and pass judgment. "BLUE SERGE," did you say? Well! It's mighty hard to break a man of the blue serge habit! And we've got 'em! Best is the world--$10 to $25. With or without vests; single and double-breasted; in the rakish styles for the young fellows; and also the conservative styles. So, make it a blue serge then!

SHOE SUGGESTIONS FOR MEN

A short visit to our Shoe Department, when you are in the buying humor, will tell you more about shoe quality, shoe elegance, than anything we could possibly say to you in an advertisement. Without the slightest fear of contradiction we may say that our shoes may not be surpassed anywhere, for they are made by manufacturers whose constant aim has been high quality, from the standpoints both of style and wear. You will recognize the names, for they are famous throughout the length and breadth of the country: Barry, for $3.50; Nettleton and Stacy Adams from $5.00 up. These are the aristocrats of the shoe making world. Come and talk to the shoeman.

STRAW HAT TIME COME AGAIN

Our full stock of straw hats is now on display and when you've looked through them there'll be nothing else for you to learn about straw hats this season. We've hats for every head and prices for every pocket, so there'll be no need for any man in Paducah to go without a straw hat this season. Prices range from 50c to $5. And here, too, you will find the Panama. One-piece, hand finished, genuine Panamas, in all this season's correct shapes--Alpines, Optimos, Dented Crowns and Telescopes. Come quick if you want one. They'll fly! Good Panamas are already getting scarce, so if you would wear a Panama get in early. Prices from $5.00 to $12.50.

Underwear Department

Pure silks, novia and blue, solid colors and stripes, $3.50 and $4.50 a garment. American silks, white, novia, blue and rose, plain and fancy, $1.00, $1.50 and $1.75 a garment. Swiss lisses, white and ecru, $1.00 a garment. Fine sea island cotton at 75c a garment; and our famous 50c Maco Cotton Balgrigan in different shades. We will gladly show you.

Fine Shirts and Hosiery

E. & W., Manhattan, Emery and our own brands of Madras, Chambray, Soisette, Linen, Silk-and-Linen and pure silk; coat and regular styles; new, solid shades and plaids, $1.00 to $5.00. HALF HOSE--New things in our 25c and 50c lines of fine gauze lisses, and pure silks, in plain, solid colors, clocked or embroidered, at $1.00 to $3.50.

RIVER NEWS

River Stages.

Cairo	27.1	0.5	fall
Chattanooga	8.3	0.6	fall
Cincinnati	19.4	0.3	rise
Evansville	12.6	...	Std
Florance--missing.
Johnsonville	6.0	...	Std
Louisville	7.3	0.3	rise
Mt. Carmel	4.1	0.1	fall
Nashville	10.3	0.2	rise
Pittsburg Island Dam	3.8	...	Std
St. Louis	20.2	0.6	fall
Mt. Vernon	12.3	0.9	fall
Paducah	14.7	0.5	fall

The gauge registered 14.7 this morning, a fall of 0.5 in the last 24 hours. Weather clear.

Mr. John Mulholland is in the city to purchase a towboat in place of the Jesse B., which sank a while back.

The Jim T. Duffy is here and will leave tomorrow morning for the upper Tennessee river for tugs.

The Georgia Lee from Cincinnati will pass down tomorrow for Memphis.

The Dick Fowler will be in charge of a new captain on the 15th, when Capt. E. W. Vewley, of Evansville, takes command. Capt. Mark Cole has had charge temporarily since Capt. Crider resigned.

The Kentucky arrived this morning at 3 a. m. and went on down to Metropolis to unload freight consigned to that point. It will leave tomorrow at 6 p. m. for Waterloo, Ala., and way points.

The City of Saltillo will stop here on the way to the Tennessee river from St. Louis tomorrow evening.

The Peters Lee passed here at 1 o'clock yesterday bound for Cincinnati from Memphis.

The Joe Fowler was the regular packet to Evansville and return today.

The towboats Harth and Castalia are in port today.

The excursion steamer Louisiana has been anchored over against Owen's Island since left off from the marine ways. It will carry an excursion out of here Sunday.

The Scrap Book magazine says that there are 3,500,000 people, passengers and employees, on the seas and waterways of the world every day in the year.

The New Orleans Picayune of Tuesday says: The Natchez Transportation company's big steamer Natchez will leave tomorrow evening, or Thursday morning for Paducah, Ky., going through without freight or passengers, and soon after her arrival there will be hauled out on the ways and made almost as good as new.

Capt. Wm. A. Duke, president and general manager of the company, who will go up on the Natchez and superintend her repairs, states that the work on her will consume about 30 days, and when completed she will be taken to St. Louis to load for this city.

The Louisville Herald of Tuesday says: What is considered by steamboat officials one of the most important and far-reaching decisions handed down in some time was received yesterday by Judge W. G. Dearing, collector of customs and surveyor of the port, in connection with an appeal taken on his interpretation of the laws for measurement of boats.

The law provides that all boats whose tonnage exceeds 15 tons shall come under the regulations of the steamboat supervision department, and that they shall have a licensed pilot and other equipment designated by the rules. This law has been loosely interpreted, but Judge Dearing decided, after studying the situation since he entered the office of surveyor of the port, that the 15 tons mentioned is 15 tons gross. Heretofore many boats whose gross tonnage is over 30 tons have been allowed to remain outside the jurisdiction of the regular inspection because of the fact that the net tonnage was taken and the machinery not included in the measurements. The question arose in connection with the measurement of the Little Sandy at Frankfort. It had been built, according to the officials, with a view to escaping the regulations, as its net tonnage is under 15 tons. Including its machinery however, its tonnage is 38 tons.

Judge Dearing, therefore, decided that it must be regularly inspected, and his decision was questioned by the owners. He submitted the question to the commissioner of navigation, who sustained his view. No distinction has heretofore been made in the gross and net tonnage, and this has led to many inconsistencies in the measurement, compared to methods used elsewhere. It is possible that many of the gasoline boats, whose tonnage has heretofore been fixed at 15 tons, exclusive of machinery, will now be raised above the mark and will be compelled to submit to the regulations. Should this be done, the fight of the local steamboaters, who have for a long while been protesting against the status of these boats, contending that they are really over 15 tons, but have been carrying freight and passengers without a licensed pilot on the ground that they are below that tonnage, will have been won.

News has been received here of the death of Charles Huckleberry, manager of the marine ways at Mound City, which occurred at his home in that place at 6:35 o'clock Thursday evening. Mr. Huckleberry was very well known in all the towns along the Ohio river in this section.

He had resided in Mound City since his boyhood. Some months ago he contracted consumption and the disease made its usual deadly progress. The decedent was unmarried and is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mary Friganza, a brother, Ira Huckleberry and step-brother, Willis T. Friganza.

Yesterday's river forecasts: The Ohio at Evansville not much change during the next 24 hours, followed by a slight rise. At Mt. Vernon, will continue falling during the next 24 to 36 hours. At Paducah and Cairo, will continue falling for two or three days. The Tennessee from Florence to below Johnsonville, will continue rising during the next two days. The Mississippi from below St. Louis, to Cairo, will continue falling during the next 36 hours.

NEWS NOTES.

D. H. Russell, of Louisville, was elected Great Sachem of the Improved Order of Red Men at the annual meeting held in Frankfort. Lexington was selected as the place to hold the next annual convention.

Moses Haas, who was arrested in New York recently in connection with the cotton leak case, was Wednesday discharged from custody by Judge Holt, of the United States court.

John Alexander Dowie and Wilbur Voliva are unable to agree on a committee to manage the affairs of Zion City.

Judge F. E. Albright, an ex-Kentuckian, died Monday in Waco, Tex., where he had been living for some years. Judge Albright was formerly a resident of Cairo, where he practiced law a number of years.

Hon. Carl Schurz is critically ill at his home in New York City.

Dorman Morzman, of Shenandoah, Ia., was killed in a runaway Thursday night.

GRIP-IT: the cold-cream that does the work in 8 hours, and will not make you sick. Try it.

Great Pacific

SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY, MAY 12

Elgin Creamery Butter, per lb.	28c	Heinz Cherry Preserves, 5 lbs.	$1.30
7 bars Big Deal Soap	25c	for	$1.30
7 bars Star Soap	25c	3 cans Heinz Baked Beans	25c
1 can Corn, 1 can Peas, 1 can		3 pkgs. Quaker Oats	25c
Mutton Chop Tomatoes, all		2 pkgs. Nutflake Oats	15c
3 cans for	25c	(They are fine.)
3 lb. can Apples	10c	3 cans best Talcum Powder	25c
3 lb. can Peaches	10c	7 bars best Toilet Soap	25c
3 lb. can Pineapple	10c	Just in, another lot of Pickle
½ lb. can Red Salmon	10c	Relish in quart jars	25c
Helios Apple Butter, 3 lbs.	30c	3 lbs. salt	10c

GREAT PACIFIC TEA & COFFEE CO.

Old Phone 1179 333 Broadway New Phone 1176

THE NEWS IN NOTES.

A killing frost was general over Michigan Wednesday night.

Four persons were injured when a sleeper of a Chesapeake and Ohio train was ditched near Buena Vista, Ohio.

Henry Klein, formerly in business in Louisville, died of heart trouble at Nicholaville.

John W. Clark, a young business man of Birmingham, Ala., committed suicide by shooting at the home of his father-in-law, James Heekin, a wealthy resident of Cincinnati. Mr. Clark came to Cincinnati several days ago to seek relief from stomach trouble, but at last took his life through despondency.

Subscribe for The Sun.

THE KENTUCKY, Telephone 548

Saturday, May 12, Matinee and Night

BENEFIT SAN FRANCISCO SUFFERERS

A Splendid Scenic Revival of the greatest of All American Dramas

"RIP VAN WINKLE"

Washington Irving's Beautiful Legend of the Catskills

Prices, Matinee: Children 0c, adults 25. Night Prices: Orchestra and balcony 50c, gallery 25c and 35c. Last show of the season.
SEATS ARE NOW ON SALE